MRS. GALBRAITH'S WILL

The Bulk of Property Left to Her Favorite Nephew

The last will and testament of Mary Davis Galbraith was lodged for record in the Mason County Court yesterday.

The instrument was in the deceased's own hand write, and after all her just debts are paid and a suitable mark placed over her grave, she wills to Las Roe Davis, her nephew, son of Clay Davis, all her interest in the dower lands that were set apart out of her parents' estate, which consists of 200 acres of land in Lewis county near the Mason line. Clay Davis is to have the use of said land until his son arrives at the age of 30, when he shall come into full possession. In the event the father dies first the son is to have immediate possession.

SOME Editors use two or three columns of words to say nothing.

Merchant that will refuse to handle goods will, as he should, reap a harvest from sale of legitimate goods.

It is to be hoped that Maysville will follow the example of Cynthiana by prohibiting the use of fireworks on Christmas—or at any other time for that matter. The practice is senseless as well as dangerous; and the eyesight of the humblest child is of more value than all the crackers and rockets that could be stored in all the shops in town.

HENRY HOCKZEIMO, boss of the gang of thieves which has in two months stolen $25,000 worth of goods from freight cars at Chicago, must have been training for the Presidency of a Life Insurance Company. However, as the innocent stockholders of the Railway Company must stand the losses, the gentleman with the disjointed name need care very little about his peculations.

THE Enterprise National Bank busted at Allegheny, Pa., owing $1,032,000 to depositors. And now the Attorney for the stockholders says that if his clients are required to pay this amount "it would financially ruin them." That's too bad; the Directors got all their "dividends" through loaning the money of the depositors, and the latter ought, by all means, to stand their losses without a murmur.

More than 40,000,000 calendars are given away during January in this country each year; and just about 39,999,000 of them aren't worth a cancelled postage stamp.

OFFICIAL returns from 100 of the 119 counties in the state of the vote cast at the late election show a Democratic majority of 37,083. The Republican Bosses must feel proud of their achievement.

THE Flemingsburg Times-Democrat "seconds the motion;" and, if it isn't ruled out as unparliamentary, THE LEDGER desires to add, "me too," to this from The Cynthiana Democrat—

"The present election laws should be amended in such manner as to defeat the purposes of dishonest officials so far as possible. Great frauds in registration are committed in the larger cities. These could be prevented by the right sort of election officers. The evil that demands first consideration, however, is that of the polltax. In a town the size of Cynthiana, for instance, a citizen is required by law to pay $1.50 polltax to the county and $1.50 to the city. There is no penalty for failure to pay this tax except a publication of the names of delinquents in a newspaper or on a fencepost. The consequence is thousands of dollars are lost to the state annually through the fellows who will not pay; and all taxes are of necessity higher. Mississippi requires that the voter show his tax receipts for two years prior to the election. It is a salutary law in two respects. It disfranchises the worthless tax dodgers and it prevents in a large degree the paying of polltaxes by party managers a few days in advance of the election. Kentucky's Treasury can be lined with velvet by the passage of a similar law, and at the same time the character of the state's suffrage will be elevated."

TOO FAR FROM THE MARKET.

Soon after the Civil War General Rufus Ingalls, U. S. A., visited a friend in the South. Taking a walk one morning he met a boy coming up from the river with a fine string of fish.

"What will you take for your fish?" asked the General. "Thirty cents," was the reply.

"Thirty cents!" repeated the General in astonishment. Why, if you were in New York you could get three dollars for them."

The boy looked critically at the officer and then said scornfully—

"Yes, sah; en I reckon if I had a bucket of water in bell I could get a million for it."

"THE FIGHT FOR THE OPEN SHOP"

Isaac F. Marconson, formerly of Louisville, has a very interesting article in the Christmas number of The World's Work on "The Fight for the Open Shop." He summarizes results as follows:

First—The employer has learned the value of organized opposition to excessive Union demands and is securing control of his shop or business.

Second—The power of the Walking Delegate as a disturber of peace and industry is passing.

Third—The non-Union worker now knows that he can be protected in his constitutional right to work where he pleases.

Fourth—Organized labor is on the defensive instead of the offensive.

Fifth—The labor agitator has been taught to respect the law.

The employers do not maintain nor wish that Labor Unions should be destroyed; nor do they question the right of temperate and constructive (not destructive) organization. They have proved, too, that the Union and the non-Union man can work in peace side by side under free and fair conditions. This is industrial democracy.

ROBERT G. LYNN'S WILL

Handsome Provision For Number of Nieces and Nephews

Since the late Robert G. Lynn made his original will in 1891, seven of the beneficiaries named in it have died, and in 1904 he made a codicil to that document, changing its provisions so far as the decedents were concerned.

Said codicil, which supercedes the original, was yesterday probated in the Mason County Court, and is given in full below—

I, Robert G. Lynn, being still of sound mind and of disposing memory, do make and publish this my codicil to the foregoing will dated October 7th, 1891.

Since the making of said will, my two sisters, Charlotte Burrows and Ellen McKinley; my nieces, Ella Jane Clark, Julia Burrows Lurley, Anna Burrows, Ella Burrows, and my nephew, James Craigbaum, have died. Neither of my nieces, except Julia Burrows Lurley, nor my nephew was ever married, and my sister, Ellen McKinley, left no issue surviving her. My niece, Julia Burrows Lurley, left surviving her two sons, Robert Lynn Lurley and William Lurley. Since then, also, my niece, Jennie Burrows, and grandniece, Lottie Britten, have married, the name of the one now being Jennie Burrows Flower and the other Lottie Britten Finerty. In view of this, I change my foregoing will and republish same with the following additions, to-wit:

First—The trusteeship provided in the second clause of said will during the lifetime of my two sisters is revoked.

Second—I will and devise to Elsie Wall, daughter of Arthur Wall of Baltimore, Md., six hundred and forty acres of land in Upson county, Texas, being South half of 1280 acres, known as Survey No. 1, on the waters of Pecos river, conveyed to me by James Shackelford and wife by deed dated August 7th, 1897, and duly recorded.

Third—I will and bequeath to my nephew, Robert L. Hoeftich, his note for $2,500 which I hold.

Fourth—I will, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal and wherever located, to my Executor, Rudolph K. Hoeftich, and direct him to convert same into money, to which end he is authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of my said real estate wherever situated, make deed to purchasers and collect the purchase money, and out of same he will first pay to my niece, Jennie Burrows Flower, $1,000, and purchase a U. S. Government bond for $500 and hold same subject to the trust hereinafter, indicated and the balance thereof he will distribute as follows, to-wit:

One-eighth to my niece, Mary Clark; one-eighth to my niece, Sallie Burrows; one-eighth to my grandnephews, Robert Lynn Lurley and William Lurley; one-eighth to my niece, Jennie Burrows Flower; one-eighth to my grandniece, Lottie Britten Finerty; one-eighth to my nephew, Rudolph K. Hoeftich; one-eighth to my nephew, William N. Hoeftich; one-eighth to my grandnephews, William R. McDonald, Paul H. McDonald and George H. McDonald.

Fifth—My said Executor will collect and apply the income from said Government bond in keeping the family burying lot in the Maysville Cemetery in good order. He shall have power to designate a successor to himself in said trust by last will, and in default of such designation I designate the Maysville Cemetery Company as his successor. The Trustee of this trust will always keep said fund invested in a United States Government bond bearing interest as long as it is possible to do so.

Sixth—I request that no bond, inventory, appraisal or settlement be required of my Executor, Rudolph K. Hoeftich, by the Mason County Court.

Given under my hand this 29th day of December, 1904.

R. G. LYNN.

Signed by the testator in our presence and by us at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other, December 20th, 1904.

J. F. BARBOUR,
JAMES CHILDS.

The estate to be distributed under the foregoing will approximate $25,000.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather the Court Day sales yesterday were fairly well attended by people from the other side of the river, as well as from the county. The stock offered consisted principally of horses, and were of a much better quality than those offered at the previous sale day. There is no good reason why this point should not become a mart for the sale of horses, cattle and hogs if rightly encouraged and fostered.

HANDS CRACKED AND PEELED

Suffered for One Year—Water Caused Agony, Heat Intense Pain
—Grew Worse Under Doctors—Could Not Do Any Housework.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL
CURE BY CUTICURA

"About a year ago my hands began to crack and peel. I tried many remedies, but they grew worse all the time. At last they became so sore that it was impossible for me to do my housework. If I put my hands in water, I was in agony for hours; and if I tried to cook over the stove, the heat caused intense pain. I consulted a doctor, but his prescriptions were utterly useless. I gave him up and tried another, but without the least satisfaction. About six weeks ago I got my first relief when I purchased Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them for a week, I found to my great delight that my hands were beginning to feel much better, the deep cracks began to heal up and stop running, and to-day my hands are entirely well, the one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment being all that I used. (signed) Mrs. Minnie Drew, 18 Dana St., Roxbury Mass."

ONE NIGHT TREATMENT
For Sore Hands and Feet with Cuticura

Soak the hands or feet on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of Cuticura Soap. Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure. Wear on the hands during the night old, loose gloves, or bandage the feet lightly in old, soft cotton or linen.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Enter Drug & Chem. Co., New York, Boston, and send for "How to Cure Itching, Scaly Humors."

Gago 38.8 and rising.
The Greenwood will be up tonight for Pomeroy.

Henry M. Stanley passed down at 7 o'clock this morning.

The Tacoma is due down today from Charleston and way points.

Everything goes on the Ohio now. It is at a fine stage of navigation.

The recent rains have been general from here to the mountains and a good big river is the result.

The weather has been rough on the river lately and towboats have been tangled up in the wind.

The Florence J. Torrence, a three-decker side wheel, an excursion boat from Pittsburgh, passed down yesterday, being sold to Cincinnati parties.

Captain Frank Summers, aged 74, recently stricken with paralysis while in the engine room of the towboat Convoy, died at Pomeroy Thursday last.

Because of the heavy and prolonged rains of Friday night and Saturday, flood warnings have been sent by the Weather Bureau to all towns along the Ohio.

Most of the coal fleet has passed this city. The river is still at a fine stage and shipments will be kept up. The larger part of the coal will be sent South from Cincinnati.

The Cincinnati-Pittsburgh line of boats has changed their schedule until further notice. Hereafter the Queen City will pass up on Tuesday night instead of Saturday, the Keystone State as usual on Thursday, and the Virginia on Saturday instead of Tuesday, as formerly.

White streamer—Fair;

Black above—Twill warmer grow

The above forecasts are made for a period of ning.

Mr. R. L. Sharp, a prominent merchant and business man of Sharpsburg, together with his wife and their son, Evans, sustained injuries Saturday during a drive home between Carlisle and Sharpsburg. They were on their return from a Thanksgiving visit to Mr. and Mrs. J.
Barbour Russell in this city. At the foot of a steep hill the buggy axle broke, giving fright to their horse, and the occupants were thrown from the vehicle. The injuries received are not so serious but that all will recover.

As usual the Howard-Dorset Company played to a big house last night. In the four act comedy, "A Trip to Bombay" Mr. Howard and Miss Dorset in the leading roles scored a big hit. The supporting company is especially strong. The specialties are all new; Tennant's moving pictures are as good as Howe's and are worth the price of admission alone. Tonight Nat Goodwin's great success, "Running for Congress," Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats on sale at Ray's and a crowded house should result; for this is really the best repertoire company ever in Maysville.

Personal

Louisville.

Mr. Dora Tucker is at home after a short stay at Cincinnati.

Miss Anna Mae Henson is at home, after a at Cincinnati.

sgiving holidays here, has resumed her duties as Court Stenographer at Fayetteville, W. Va.

Mrs. Marie Candy and children of the East End have returned home from a visit to her father, Mr. Michael Muloney of Mayslick.

Colonel Clint Browning of Everywhere bowed in Saturday for a visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Browning; and of course it rained.

of Washington returned yesterday to the State College at Lexington after spending the holi-city, is now with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hauke, in their elegant new home in Third avenue, Huntington, W. Va.

has been ill for a week past.

James H. M. Ross, one of the city's pioneer citizens, died suddenly early Monday morning, aged 64.

RAJAH OF BHONG

One of the special features of the "Rajah of Bhong" Company is an operatic travesty by the El-More Sisters, entitled, "Nearly Grand Opera," in which the El-More Sisters are shown to great advantage. Their burlesque portrayal of this specialty, which will be remembered from last season with "A Devil's Lane" Company, is one of the hits of the "Rajah of Bhong," which will be seen at The Washington Theater, Saturday, December 9th.

Building Associations

The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Maysville Building Association	$2,434.75

Property Building Association	1,096.00
Total	$5,016.25

PAID MOST TOO MUCH

Louisville Courier-Journal

In fixing a price for wages, whether as a renumeration for manual labor or as salaries of those in higher positions in life, the scale by which the amount paid is graduated, under the natural laws of political economy, is measured by the value of the services rendered.
But when it comes to the heads of Nations or corporations, this rule seems entirely ignored, and in many cases the salary is in inverse ratio to the services rendered or the capacity of the incumbent.

The Czar of Russia receives annually $6, 750,000, and each Grand Duke $1,000,000.

The Kaiser gets no salary as Emperor of Germany, but receives $1,000,000 as King of Prussia.

The King of Bavaria receives $1,350,000 a year, and the King of Saxony $850,000, the kingdom of each being about as large as Connecticut.

On the other hand, the salary of the President of the United States, who does more hard work than all of the European rulers combined, is but $50,000. Prior to 1873, it was $25,000, while the salary of the President of an insurance company is $150,000.

The Vice-President of the United States gets $5,000 a year, and the Vice-President of an insurance company $75,000.

Evidently some of these wage earners receive too much or some too little, and the scale needs readjusting.

A GREAT WEAPON

Maysville People Cannot Fail to Appreciate the Worth of It

Only one weapon
To fight backache—
The weapon that strikes the cause—
Doan's Kidney Pills reach the root;
Their work in Maysville proves it.
You read of cures made years ago.
And the cures were lasting cures.

Read the following:
Mrs. Mary Thomas, wife of J. A. Thomas, of 204 Limestone St., Maysville, Ky., says:

"I am only too pleased to confirm the statement I made in the spring of 1900 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, after they had relieved me of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. I got them then at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. During the years that have elapsed since I made that statement I have had occasion to give Doan's Kidney Pills a further trial, and I have found that it requires only a few doses to ward off attacks of kidney trouble or to check them before they become serious.
I can also point to the case of my boy, twelve years old, who at the time I first used Doan's Kidney Pills was troubled a great deal with weakness of the kidneys and could not control the secretions properly. I gave him Doan's Kidney Pills and he improved rapidly under the treatment. The relief he found has proved lasting, and from his experience and mine I am certainly warranted in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box.

for the United States.
